

GENERAL INFORMATION

Head Teacher

ABOUT THE COUNCIL

East Renfrewshire Council is widely recognised as one of the most progressive councils in Scotland. We were the first in Scotland with an executive style political management and are a council that embraces modernisation where it makes a positive and genuine difference to the lives of local people.

We have our own identity and are keen advocates of consulting with local people and taking on board their views to improve service delivery. We are ambitious about making a real, positive difference to the quality of life of people in East Renfrewshire.

East Renfrewshire is home to over 90,000 residents and this figure is increasing all the time. Our schools are some of the top performing school in Scotland and our services are provided by five council departments.

For more information on the council visit our website www.eastrenfrewshire.gov.uk.

SUMMARY OF MAIN TERMS & CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT

The following notes do not form any part of any contract of employment and are given for general information only.

Terms and Conditions of Employment

During your employment with East Renfrewshire Council your terms and conditions of employment will be in accordance with the existing collective agreements of the Scottish Negotiating Committee for Teachers as applied by the council together with certain additional terms and conditions agreed by the Local Negotiating Committee for Teachers.

Payment of Salary

Teaching staff are paid monthly by credit transfer to their bank or building society account.

Hours of Duty

Teachers have a 35 hour working week. The working week applies on a pro rata basis to teachers on part time contracts. A maximum of 22.5 hours are devoted to class contact and this is also applied on a pro rata basis to teachers on part time contracts.

Annual Leave

Annual leave entitlement for teachers is 40 days. Pro rata arrangements shall apply to part time staff and those employed for any part of the leave year. The balance of days within the school holiday periods shall be days of school closure. Annual leave days and school closure days are determined by the Local Negotiating Committee for Teachers.

Notice

You may terminate your employment by giving a minimum of 8 weeks notice, which include 4 working weeks. All notice must be given in writing, in accordance with the terms and conditions as stated in your contract of employment.

Sickness Absence

Your entitlement during any absence due to sickness or injury will be as set out in the terms and conditions of employment in accordance with the existing collective agreements of the Scottish Negotiating Committee for Teachers as applied by the council.

Pension Scheme

Teachers are subject to the provisions of the Scottish Teachers' Superannuation Scheme and are automatically entered into the scheme unless you indicate that you wish to opt out. Full details of the Scottish Teachers' Superannuation Scheme can be obtained from Teachers | SPPA \(pensions.gov.scot\))

Professional Review and Development

The Education Department has a Professional Review and Development (PRD) Scheme for teaching staff which is a joint agreement with the Local Negotiating Committee for Teachers. Professional Review and Development, including Professional Update, is the process, whereby professional learning needs are identified and agreed in relation to their current practice, the requirements of the school, the authority improvement plan, the wider and longer term needs of the education service and the national priorities. It also provides an opportunity to formally record strengths and the contribution employees make to the school. In addition, the scheme will enhance communication between you and your manager by establishing continuous informal assessment and feedback on your performance together with an annual review. Engagement with the suite of GTC Scotland's Professional Standards support self-evaluation and professional learning and underpins the PRD process.

Trade Union

You will have a right to join a trade union relevant to the post and to take part in its activities.

Recruitment and Selection Complaints Procedure

If you think you have been treated less favourably than other applicants, inappropriately or discriminated against during the recruitment and selection process, then there is a complaints procedure which enables candidates to have issues investigated and addressed. If you wish to complain, you can log a complaint via the council's internet site or via Customer First.

employees from misunderstanding or criticism. In addition, it is to reassure those with whom the council comes into contact, whether as customers, suppliers or as members of the community, about the integrity of East Renfrewshire Council and all its employees.

EQUALITY OF EMPLOYMENT

East Renfrewshire Council is committed to promoting equality of opportunity. The aim of the council's policy is to ensure that no job applicant or employee receives less favourable treatment than any other on any grounds including:

race, colour, nationality, ethnic or national origins, disability, age, sex, sexual orientation, marital status, religion, responsibility for dependants, employment status, political belief or trade union activity or is disadvantaged by condition or requirement that cannot be shown to be justifiable.

This policy will apply to the recruitment, selection, promotion, transfer, training, benefits, facilities, procedures and terms and conditions of employment. The council will pursue practices designed to promote equality and eliminate discrimination and will regularly review their effectiveness.

If you ever consider that you have suffered unequal treatment on the grounds stated above, you can make a complaint to the Deputy Chief Executive who will investigate the complaint and formally reply to you regarding the findings of the investigation.

CODE OF CONDUCT

East Renfrewshire Council recognises that the public has a right to expect the very highest standards of conduct from all employees. In this connection a Code of Conduct has been prepared by the council as a result of the adoption by COSLA of the National Code of Conduct for all employees.

The paramount objective of the Code is to lay down guidelines for employees to assist them to maintain and improve standards and protect

HEALTH AND SAFETY

In line with the council's general and statutory obligations to provide a safe and health working environment for employees, East Renfrewshire Council has in place a health and safety policy. The policy is divided into three sections and should be regarded as the council's intentions towards the creation, maintenance and development of a safe and health working environment.

Section 1 outlines the general principles underpinning the council's commitment to creating a positive health and safety culture while

Section 2 outlines the specific responsibilities placed on the chief executive, the deputy chief executive and other departmental chief officers and also the general responsibilities of employees in developing that culture. Section 3 details the specific procedures and arrangements required to be introduced to implement and monitor these policies. As an employee you will be expected to co-operate in the implementation of the council's health and safety policy by:

- 1 Acting in the course of your employment with due care for your own safety and that of others, who may be affected by your acts or omissions at work.
- 2 Co-operating, so far as is necessary, to enable the council to perform any duty or to comply with any requirements, as a result of any Health and Safety legislation which may be in force.
- 3 Using correctly all work items provided by the council in accordance with the training and instructions you receive to enable you to use the items safely.

EMPLOYEE BENEFITS

In addition to excellent terms and conditions of employment, the Council offers access to a range of employee benefit schemes. These include:-

- ♦ Voluntary health care scheme
- ♦ TUSKER salary sacrifice car benefit scheme
- ♦ Local authority discount scheme
- ♦ Discounted leisure membership
- ♦ Credit Union
- ♦ Employee counselling service
- ♦ Occupational maternity/paternity pay
- ♦ lifestyle spending savings
- ♦ Financial Wellbeing Service
- ♦ Work life balance policies